

Oregon's Technical and Regional Universities

Rural, regional and distance learning. Programs available on campus and online. EOU has 16 regional centers, including liberal arts, business, education, and cooperative programs in agriculture, nursing, and dental hygiene.

Oregon's only polytechnic institution, OIT serves the state with programs in business, engineering, and health technologies, and cooperative programs in dental fields and nursing

- Oregon Tech Portland Metro Campus Features programs in engineering, robotics, and cybersecurity

Provides programs in liberal arts and sciences, professional programs in education, sign language, business, and public services, and a cooperative nursing program

Provides programs in liberal arts and sciences, professional program in education, business, and public services, and cooperative program in nursing.

A Land, Sea, Sun, and Space Grant University with programs in the liberal arts and sciences, and professional programs in agricultural sciences, business, education, engineering, forestry, health and human sciences, oceanography, pharmacy, and veterinary medicine.

- OSU-Cascades Campus (Bend) Major partner with Central Oregon Community College (COCC). Major features are the natural resources, recreation, and kinesology.

A large, diverse urban public university located in the heart of Portland, PSU offers programs in fine arts and performing arts, liberal arts and sciences, business administration, education, urban and public affairs, social work, engineering, and computer science.

A major liberal arts and sciences university with professional programs in architecture and allied arts, business, education, journalism, law, music and performing arts, and planning and public policy.

